A letter from the Chief of Police regarding the complaint process

Students, Faculty, Staff and visitors of the University of Georgia,

The University of Georgia police department seeks to serve our community with pride and professionalism. You should know that our officers have the same authorities and obligations as any other certified police officer in the state of Georgia. Our officers are expected to be proactive, professional, and community oriented.

In order to serve you better, we welcome your suggestions, constructive criticism or complaints, including complaints against specific officers. All complaints will be investigated thoroughly and appropriate corrective action will be taken when warranted.

There are numerous ways you may submit a complaint to this Department:

1) You may come to the university police department at any time to file a complaint report with a supervisor or to obtain this form.

2) You may submit this form in person or by mail.

3) You may telephone the Department at (706) 542-5813 and file a complaint report to a supervisor over the telephone or request to have this form mailed to you.

4) This form may also be turned into the office of the Deputy Chief of Police for Field Operations.

This form may be downloaded from the Department's web page at http://www.police.uga.edu and follow the complaint link.

We appreciate your comments as they assist us in providing the highest quality service to the members of our community.
